In this epic adventure the wandering Silk Road martial artist Gregory Brundage takes the readers along the ancient and modern Silk Roads to visit Taekwondo Federation officials, masters, coaches, teams, clubs and students in addition to other local martial art centers, in Kyrgyzstan, Uzbekistan, Turkmenistan, Azerbaijan, Georgia, Turkey and China. In each country he interviewed and photographed the masters and students, usually training with them, and visited the major Silk Road sites, museums and other cultural landmarks. This book emphasizes the commonalities and unity of martial artists across the entire continent of Asia from China to Turkey, bonded by love of the arts, self discipline, mutual respect with a healthy dose of fun mixed in.
